February 2008 Newsletter

With the weather so cold and the days so short, many are finding they just don't have the time to exercise their dog(s) the way they need and deserve. If you are thinking about adding another day of daycare to your dog's schedule or putting him or her on a standing reservation, we have plenty of room on Mondays, Tuesdays, and Fridays. If your dog is not yet on a regular schedule, we recommend a standing reservation for the following reasons:

1. Dogs are routine animals and thrive on schedules. When your dog comes consistently on the same day(s) every week, they will begin to know which day is "Daycare Day" and will look forward to it!
2. Your dog will build relationships with other dogs attending on his/her same day(s). This allows them to get the most out of their daycare experience and they will enter the pack with less stress and more confidence.
3. We will always have room for your dog!

Spring Break is right around the Corner!

Believe it or not, many people are already planning their Spring Break get-aways and making their boarding reservations for the first part of April. If you will need to board your dog(s) over Spring Break, please let us know as soon as possible so we are sure to have a room available.

Products for Dog Lovers!

Looking for a unique gift for a pet lover in your life? Want to warm up with a new comfy sweatshirt? Visit www.alldoggedup.com for apparel, posters, magnets and other fun gear. All Dogged Up is owned by 3 local ladies, Barbara Hranilovic, Terri Haas Whittman, and Janet Smith.

If you haven't already done so, we suggest visiting Lansing's Old Town to check out the new IKEA makeover. Old Town Main Street was chosen out of over 50 entries from across the USA to receive $50,000 in IKEA products which were distributed amongst participating businesses. Our friends at Gone 2 the Dogs had their shop made over... it is beautiful!

Don't forget... for every new dog you refer for daycare, your dog will receive a FREE day!

Spa referrals receive a $10 credit towards their next Spa appointment!

Puppy Pics!

We still have plenty of room on our wall in the reception area for your dog's picture! If you would like your dog displayed, please bring in a framed 3x5 or 4x6 photo and we will proudly hang it on our wall for all to admire.

Keep an eye out for the newest class schedule offered by Good Dog! Training. Classes are a fun and constructive way to spend time with your dog and relieve winter cabin fever! Visit www.janetasmith.com for a complete list of classes offered.

The 2008 Fur Ball

Save the Date... the 5th Annual Fur Ball is set to commence on Saturday, April 19, 2008 at Eagle Eye Golf Course. The festivities begin at 5:30pm with cocktails and hors d'oeuvres. The night continues with the ever popular Silent Auction, a delicious gourmet dinner, and the always exciting Live Auction... then dance the night away until the evening (unfortunately) ends at 11:30pm. (Doggy Daycare and Spa donated a 10 visit Daycare Package and a $50 Spa Certificate for the Silent Auction! What a fantastic way to get a good deal and donate to a wonderful cause at the same time!)

And don't forget your fuzzy canine friend... Your pooch can relax and unwind in the Ultimate Doggy Spa while you enjoy your fabulous evening.

Tickets for the event are $100 per person and $50 per pooch. Sponsorship tables (with 8 tickets) are available for $1,250. All proceeds benefit the Capital Area Humane Society.

If you are interested in attending this event and would like to join Janice, please let her know!
